How to Plan and Manage an Archeology Fair

Archeology fairs emphasize hands-on activities, displays, and interactive exhibits. This guide contains a step-by-step checklist for planning a fair and provides ideas for activities, including spear toss with atlatl, demonstration dig, flintknapping, wild-plant use, pottery making, rock art painting, basket making, storytelling, tipi life, traditional foods, and weaving. Also included are handouts to be used with various activities, as well as forms for scheduling volunteers and requesting publicity.

Texas Archeology in the Classroom: A Unit for Teachers

You can use this valuable classroom resource throughout the year. The four-part unit includes the following:

- Background sections that explain how archeologists work.
Provide overviews of archeological sites.
Discuss Native Americans in Texas from Paleoindian to Historic period.
More than 20 activities or lesson plans using archeological topics for learning across the curriculum.

Posters

TAM posters are available upon request.

Brochures

Brochures (see list below) feature a variety of archeological topics. A special folder to hold and display the brochures is also available.

TAM Calendar of Events

The 2017 calendar will be available for downloading in September at:
