How to Plan and Manage an Archeology Fair

Archeology fairs emphasize hands-on activities, displays, and interactive exhibits. This manual contains a step-by-step checklist for planning a fair and ideas for activities, including spear toss with atlatl, demonstration dig, flintknapping, wild-plant use, pottery making, rock art painting, basket making, story telling, tipi life, traditional foods, and weaving. Also included are handouts to be used with various activities, as well as forms for scheduling volunteers and requesting publicity. About 40 pages long, the manual is intended for three-hole punching and placement in a notebook so you can add information, forms, and other activity ideas of your own.

Texas Archeology in the Classroom: A Unit for Teachers

You can use this valuable classroom resource throughout the year. The four-part unit includes the following:

- Background sections that explain how archeologists work, provide overviews of archeological sites, and discuss Native Americans in Texas from Paleoindian to Historic period.
- More than 20 activities or lesson plans using archeological topics for learning across the curriculum.

TAM 2011 Calendar Booklets

This colorful booklet contains listings and descriptions of upcoming TAM events throughout the state. Event sponsors can mail them out for publicity and distribute them before and during their events.

Posters

TAM posters are available upon request.

Brochures

Brochures (see list below) feature a variety of archeological topics. A special folder to hold and display the brochures is also available.
