

How to Add Images to Flickr

Go to www.Flickr.com website.

If you do not have a Flickr account, you will need to sign up for a Yahoo! account, which is free. Click on the Sign Up for Flickr button. Follow the instructions and be sure to fill out all the boxes. Once this is set up, you will be sent to the Yahoo! website; click on Flickr on the toolbar at the top, then sign into Flickr using your new Yahoo! account user name and password.

If you already have a Yahoo! account, you are ready to get started. Sign into Flickr using your Yahoo! account user name and password.

How to upload images to your Flickr account

Click on Upload on the black toolbar at the top of the Flickr page.

Option 1:

You can drag and drop digital images directly from your photo file folder.

Add a photo title by clicking in the top box below the image.

Then you can add a longer description in the box below.

When finished with descriptions, click on Upload # Photo (in blue box) in upper right corner.

Then click "Upload to Photostream"

Option 2:

If you have problems with Option 1, then you may not have up-to-date software features. If that is the case, then click on the Old Uploadr button in the upper right toolbar (depending upon the size of your photo file, this may take some time).

Under the "Find the files you want on your computer," there are six boxes for you to upload your images. Click on the first Browse button, which will take you to your computer desktop. Find the folder where your images are located. Double click on the image selected or select the image wanted and click the Open button. Repeat up to five more times. You can add tags at this time, such as Bankhead, Texas, Highway, etc. Click on the blue Upload button to upload your images.

You can now add titles and descriptions such as location, date photo taken, etc.

Once you are done uploading your images to Flickr Photostream...

Once you are done uploading your photos to Flickr, click on Communities on the black toolbar at the top and select Search Groups, then enter Bankhead Highway in the Search box to look for the Bankhead Highway Flickr Group; select Bankhead Highway in Texas group. This will take you to the Bankhead Highway in Texas Flickr Group page.

If you are not already a member of this group, you will need to join.

Click on the Join Group button on the Bankhead Highway in Texas box on the middle left side of the page or the Bankhead Highway in Texas band across the top.

It will ask "Do you really want to join the group "Bankhead Highway in Texas"?"

Click on Join This Group button.

To add your recently uploaded photos to the Bankhead Highway in Texas group page, click on Add Photos button on the Bankhead Highway in Texas box on the middle left side of the page or the Bankhead Highway in Texas band across the top. This will take you to your recently uploaded photos. Click on each image in Your Photostream box on the left that you want to add to the Bankhead Highway in Texas group page. These will show up in the box to the right. You can add up to six photos at a time. Then click on the Add to Group button below Your Selections Box. Your photos should now have been added to the Bankhead Highway in Texas group page.
