

Detail of a map usually available from your county appraisal district

Note: When you obtain a copy of this type of map from your county appraisal district, also collect the property owner's names and mailing addresses of only the surrounding and adjacent landowners having common boundaries with the cemetery. This information should be included on page 2 of the HTC application.