Save the Date!
2022 Battle of San Jacinto Reenactment & Celebration
April 22 – 23, 2022

It may be months away, but we're already excited about the 2022 Battle of San Jacinto reenactment! The Battle of San Jacinto was one of the most pivotal moments in Texas history. The Texas Historical Commission’s tagline is Real Places Telling Real Stories. Help us celebrate the real story of Texas's independence at the real place where it happened.

Instead of one big reenactment in the middle of the afternoon, we want to put on a day of reenactments. Five separate reenactments held throughout the day will tell the story of the Battle of San Jacinto and the Runaway Scrape. After all, these events all happened on separate days. The tentative schedule for the reenactments is:

- 10:00 am — Act 1: Texas Navy
- 11:00 am — Act 2: Runaway Scrape
- 1:00 pm — Act 3: 4/20 Skirmish
- 3:00 pm — Act 4: 4/21 Battle
- 4:00 pm — Act 5: Santa Anna’s Surrender

We also want there to be a greater emphasis on living history beyond the reenactment. There will be an interactive Timeline of the Texas Revolution to explain the events leading to the Battle of San Jacinto and a living history encampment with reenactors, living history demonstrations and hands-on activities that not only bring the Texas Revolution to life, but also allow visitors to directly interact with it. The history will be the star of the show!

Like we had planned in 2020, we are also holding a special school day event for local 4th and 7th graders called the “The Road to San Jacinto.” Planned demonstrations and participatory activities will create an immersive, educational experience and encourage students’ interest in the history of Texas. We realize that not everyone can come for two days, but if you can, it will be a great event that will allow kids to really connect with their history.

Logistics:
The Road to San Jacinto School Day Event will be held on Friday, April 22 from 10:00 am – 2:00 pm. The San Jacinto Reenactment will be held on Saturday, April 23 from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm. We ask that reenactors stay for the entire day.

Accommodations:
Camping is available at the San Jacinto Battleground on the evenings of April 21 – 23. Period correct tents can set up in the reenactment area, and modern tents can be pitched at the San Jacinto Inn site near the Battleship TEXAS. Both camping areas will have restrooms and water.

For those of you who aren’t interested in camping, we will provide a discounted rate a local hotel. Information will be sent out closer to reenactment.
We have a very limited number of RV spots available at the site. Please let us know if you are interested in one and we will try to accommodate.

Food and ice will be provided on both days, and we will reimburse reenactors for their black powder. We are working with sponsors to secure additional funding, but we can’t commit to providing anything more yet. We will keep you updated as we learn more.
