

Traveling Exhibitions Related to Transportation

Basic:

Use the digital files of the 3 pop-up exhibition panels provided at "The Road to Great Exhibits," making edits to include local stories that relate to your Museum.

Good:

Host a traveling panel show via Humanities Texas.

- From their website: Humanities Texas exhibitions are designed to appeal to institutions of all sizes and budgets, from small community centers with volunteer support to mid-size museums with curatorial staff. Our program offers a wide variety of topics and formats, high-quality content and supplementary materials, easy installation, and low rental fees. Whether you are an art center with a formal gallery space or a teacher with limited classroom space, we have exhibitions that will meet your programming needs.
- Information about booking, fees, shipping, and financial support can all be found in their Rental Procedures.
- Possible relevant exhibitions currently available:
 - Crossroads of Empire: Early Printed Maps of the American Southwest
 - Forgotten Gateway: Coming to America Through Galveston Island
 - Border Studies
 - Lone Star and Eagle: German Immigration to Texas
 - The Way Things Were: Texas Settlers and Their Buildings, 1860s–1930s
 - Camino al Norte: The Journey of Don Juan de Oñate

Better:

Host an artifact and/or panel-based show from Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service

- From their website: SITES is proud to be the Smithsonian's ambassador and emissary through traveling and virtual exhibits. We bring knowledge, discovery, and experiences to people across America and beyond and we love our work.
- Information about accepting exhibitions from SITES can be found in their About section.
- Possible relevant exhibitions currently available:
 - Crossroads: Change in Rural America
