- The background of the slide is a photograph of an art gallery. It features several large, abstract paintings with dark, textured surfaces, possibly made of wood or canvas, displayed on a white wall. The floor is made of light-colored wooden planks. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the textures of the art.

1. Why offer resources in Spanish?

Some demographics:

A growing share of Hispanics have gone to college. Almost 40% of Hispanics ages 25 and older had any college experience in 2015, up from 30% in 2000. Among U.S.-born Hispanics, 52% reported they had gone to college, an increase from 41% in 2000. By comparison, 27% of foreign-born Hispanics reported some college experience, up from 22% in 2000.

1. Why offer resources in Spanish?

Some demographics:

U.S. Hispanics are the youngest of the nation's largest racial and ethnic groups. But like the rest of the country, the Hispanic population overall has grown older. Hispanics had a median age of 28 in 2015, up from 25 in 2000. Whites had the highest median age – of 43 in 2015 – followed by Asians (36) and blacks (34). Among Hispanics, those born in the U.S. and those born in another country differ widely in age. The median age of U.S.-born Hispanics was 19 in 2015, up from 18 years in 2000. Meanwhile, foreign-born Hispanics have a median age of 42 years, up from 33 in 2000.

1. Why offer resources in Spanish?

Some demographics:

The number of Hispanics who speak Spanish at home is at an all-time high, though growth is slowing. A record 37 million Hispanics ages 5 and older speak Spanish at home, up from 25 million in 2000. However, between 2010 and 2015, this number grew at an annual average of 1.8%, down from an annual average of 3.4% between 2000 and 2010.

A comienzos del siglo XX hubo una tendencia a nivel internacional por realizar sinfonías urbanas, retratos cinematográficos de la ciudad moderna. En América Latina, algunas de las primeras películas experimentales se sumaron a este género, documentando la transformación y el crecimiento de las urbes debido a procesos de industrialización y migración. Este programa ofrece miradas sobre la arquitectura, el transporte, la cotidianidad, los desechos y el uso de los espacios públicos de diversas ciudades.

URBAN HARMONIES/ DISSONANT CITIES

In the early twentieth century there was an international trend to make urban symphonies, cinematic portraits of the modern city. In Latin America, some of the first experimental films were part of this genre, documenting the transformation and growth of the cities due to industrialization and migration processes. This program presents different views of architecture, transportation, daily life, urban waste and the use of public spaces in several cities.

3. Quality of translation and its presentation

1. Develop a relationship with a translator/editor
2. Make sure there are 2 pairs of eyes on the text
3. Create a procedure for layout and review

4. Decisions regarding Spanish translations
    1. Choose a Spanish variant and a dictionary
    2. Being inclusive: gender endings
    3. Being consistent: second person conjugations
    4. Proper names and credit lines
