

AWARDS INTRODUCTION

The Texas Historical Commission (THC) offers a variety of awards to recognize worthy accomplishments and exemplary leadership in the preservation of Texas' heritage. Most of the major awards are presented at the agency's annual Real Places Conference, although the THC's highest award, The Governor's Award for Historic Preservation, is presented in a special ceremony arranged with the staff of the Governor's office.

A wide variety of projects and volunteer efforts may be recognized. Any member of the public may submit a nomination in accordance with the guidelines. Please refer to the detailed guidelines to determine which award may best fit your needs and for further instructions regarding nomination procedures.

NOTE: No current THC staff member, commissioner, advisory board member, or any member of their immediate families, may be the recipient of any THC award. Individuals may not be nominated for awards posthumously. The THC may change a nomination's award category if it is determined to have been submitted in an inappropriate category. A nomination may only be submitted for and considered in one category at any time.

Governor's Award for Historic Preservation

PURPOSE: The Governor's Award for Historic Preservation recognizes an individual's or organization's highest achievement in the preservation of Texas' prehistoric and historic heritage. One award will be presented each year at a special ceremony arranged with the governor's office.
