Overview: Magoffin, A Civic Leader
In this lesson, students will analyze primary sources to understand Joseph Magoffin’s record of service in state and national government.

Social Studies TEKS
(6) History. The student understands how individuals, events, and issues shaped the history of Texas from Reconstruction through the beginning of the 20th century. The student is expected to:
   (A) identify significant individuals, events, and issues from Reconstruction through the beginning of the 20th century, including the factors leading to the expansion of the Texas frontier.

(10) Geography. The student understands the effects of the interaction between humans and the environment in Texas during the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries. The student is expected to:
   (A) identify ways in which Texans have adapted to and modified the environment and analyze the positive and negative consequences of the modifications;

(15) Government. The student understands the structure and functions of government created by the Texas Constitution. The student is expected to:
   (A) describe the structure and functions of government at municipal, county, and state levels.

(17) Citizenship. The student understands the importance of the expression of different points of view in a democratic society. The student is expected to:
   (C) express and defend a point of view on an issue of historical or contemporary interest in Texas.

(21) Social studies skills. The student applies critical-thinking skills to organize and use information acquired through established research methodologies from a variety of valid sources, including electronic technology. The student is expected to:
   (A) differentiate between, locate, and use valid primary and secondary sources such as computer software, databases, media and news services, biographies, interviews, and artifacts to acquire information about Texas;
   (B) analyze information by sequencing, categorizing, identifying cause-and-effect relationships, comparing, contrasting, finding the main idea, summarizing, making generalizations and predictions, and drawing inferences and conclusions;
   (C) organize and interpret information from outlines, reports, databases, and visuals, including graphs, charts, timelines, and maps;
   (D) identify points of view from the historical context surrounding an event and the frame of reference that influenced the participants;
   (E) support a point of view on a social studies issue or event.

Vocabulary
- legacy: the manner in which an historical figure is remembered for his/her actions and contributions to public life
- municipal: of or relating to a town or city and its government

Historical Context
The Magoffs experienced a rapidly changing El Paso firsthand. With the coming of the railroads, El Paso industry and population boomed. The Magoffs were not only citizens of El Paso, but more importantly, leaders in its growth. Joseph was elected mayor four times between 1880 and 1900. He dedicated over 30 years to city, county, and federal work in El Paso. His achievements included:

- swearing in the first city officials for the newly incorporated city of El Paso as a Justice of the Peace,
- re-energizing interest in city government and organizing council work into a system of committee review in his first mayoral term,
- publicly and privately promoting railroad development,
- equipping the fire department, setting up a hospital bond election, organizing drainage and street improvements, and placing priority on a strong public-school system in his second mayoral term,
- working with federal officials to straighten the Rio Grande River and construct levees to protect El Paso from dangerous flooding in the late 1890s.

Activity: Magoffin’s Mayoral Legacy

5 minutes

Ask students to reflect on their visit to the Magoffin Home by completing all columns of their KWL chart. Have students share their experiences including any new questions raised by the visit.
Activity: Magoffin, A Civic Leader

Context: In 1898, Magoffin was taken to court by a saloon owner over an unpaid gambling debt. The El Paso Herald ran this cartoon and other stories about Magoffin in the weeks leading into the 1899 mayoral election. It has been suggested that the newspaper editor had a grudge against Magoffin and favored the republican candidate, O’Keefe, for mayor. In the end, Magoffin won the 1899 election by a 72% majority.

Display/distribute the political cartoon. Have students analyze the cartoon by discussing the following questions:

- Who is pictured in the cartoon? [Mayor Magoffin, roulette tender, arms signifying saloon keeper, dive keeper, vice, and gambling]
- What is the issue the cartoon is referring to? [Magoffin’s gambling debt]
- Who is the cartoon’s intended audience? [all eligible voters]
- If you were a voter in the 1899 El Paso mayoral election, how would this cartoon have affected you? [Answers will vary.]
- What is the effect of this cartoon on Magoffin’s legacy of civic leadership? [Answers will vary.]

Assessment
Evaluate students’ final KWL charts, participation in discussion, and activity worksheet for completeness and understanding.

ELA TEKS

(18) Writing/Persuasive Texts. Students write persuasive texts to influence the attitudes or actions of a specific audience on specific issues. Students are expected to write a persuasive essay to the appropriate audience that:

(A) establishes a clear thesis or position;
(B) considers and responds to the views of others and anticipates and answers reader concerns and counter-arguments; and
(C) includes evidence that is logically organized to support the author's viewpoint and that differentiates between fact and opinion.

Context: In 1898, the Rio Grande caused massive flood destruction across southern El Paso, with waters reaching as far north as the Texas and Pacific rail lines a few blocks from the Magoffin Home. Mayor Magoffin personally led crews day and night to respond to the flooding and, afterward, led restoration of the city. In June of that year, he worked with federal officials to straighten the river and build levees to immediately protect citizens. The 1898 catastrophe as well as his memory of flood-damaged Magoffinsville in the 1860s moved Mayor Magoffin to advocate for a federal project to dam the Rio Grande.

Tell students to imagine they are residents of 1898 El Paso and have survived the latest flood. They are to write a letter to the editor of the El Paso Herald stating their position for or against the building of a dam on the Rio Grande. Encourage the students to include researched details, like damage from historical floods or the effects of a dam on a river ecosystem, that might support their position.

For an additional challenge, stage a mock debate in your classroom with citizens for and against the modification of the Rio Grande.

AUSTIN, Dec. 20, 1877.

Major Jones yesterday telegraphed Lieut Tays, who commanded the Rangers at San Elizario, asking who of the Rangers were killed, and if any of the mob were Mexicans from across the Rio Grande, and to not exaggerate. This morning he received the following reply:

Sergeants McBride and Mortimore and Miguel Garcia shot; two missing. Got out by a scratch. They took our arms. One hundred and fifty from Mexico. Send some ammunition.

The governor has positive assurance from Judge Magoffin, of El Paso county, who has lived there twenty years, and from the sheriff, who knows all the people, that a large proportion of the mob was from Mexico, and now Lieut. Tays, who lived there six years, and knows the people, and saw the mob face to face, confirms this account. Garcia and others with him also know the people, and it is beyond question this testimony is better and more credible than that of Lieut. Blair, who, twenty eight miles from the scene of the massacre, telegraphs that all the mob are native-born Texans.

Railroad Magnates:

Yesterday evening about 10 o'clock a special train came in on the Southern Pacific railway, bearing the head officers of the Central Pacific and all leased lines. They were on a general tour of inspection, and stopped at this point for an hour or so. Some of the prominent citizens of the town, consisting of Mayor Magoffin and Messrs. Buchanan, Morehead, J. S. Fletcher, U. S. A., Bassett, Beall, and one or two others, wishing to extend to them the hospitality of El Paso, and treat them with that cordiality for which the “Future Immense” is noted, called upon the party in carriages and extended to them an invitation to view the city over. The officers, having an hour or so to spare, and pleased with the invitation, accepted and were escorted to prominent points of the city, including the reservoirs, the Mesa Garden, Paso del Norte.

THE recommendation of Mayor Magoffin that the city engineer be given charge of the sewer is a good one. His present duties are light and a street commissioner could be found who could do good service at a much lower salary than is now paid.
