SAN FELIPE DE AUSTIN

In 1823, Stephen F. Austin established San Felipe de Austin as the capital for his colonization efforts in Mexican Texas. During the 1836 Texas Revolution, citizens burned the town as part of the “Runaway Scrape” retreat from Mexican Gen. Santa Anna’s army. Today, the site shares the stories of Austin and his settlers through exhibits, multimedia displays, and tours of the historic landscape.

220 2nd St., San Felipe, TX 77473
979-885-2181

Open Tuesday–Sunday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Closed Mondays, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year’s Eve, and New Year’s Day.

visitsanfelipedeaustin.com

From I-10, take exit 723 to FM 1458. Travel north through San Felipe. Turn right on 2nd St. The museum is on the left.