

SAM BELL MAXEY HOUSE

— STATE HISTORIC SITE —

Paris, Texas

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
REAL PLACES TELLING REAL STORIES

SAM BELL MAXEY HOUSE

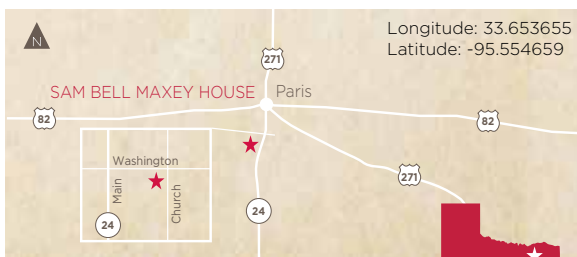

Sam Bell Maxey was a Mexican War veteran, former Confederate general, and future U.S. Senator when his family moved into their newly built Paris home in 1868. The family navigated the political and social landscape from Reconstruction through the start of the First World War. The home gives insight into the lives of the three generations that bore witness to Reconstruction's challenging legacy.

812. S. Church St. | Paris, TX 75460
903-785-5716

Tuesday-Sunday 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Closed Mondays, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day.

visitsambellmaxeyhouse.com

Located in Paris at the corner of Church and Washington streets.

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
REAL PLACES TELLING REAL STORIES

thc.texas.gov | texastimetravel.com